RISK FACTORS

Prior to making an investment decision, prospective investors in the Notes offered hereby should consider carefully, among other things and in light of their financial circumstances and investment objectives, all the information of this Prospectus and, in particular, the risks factors set forth below. Each of the risks highlighted below could have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, financial conditions or prospects of the Issuer, which in turn could have a material adverse effect on the amount of principal and interest which investors will receive in respect of the Notes. In addition, each of the risks highlighted below could adversely affect the trading price of the Notes or the rights of investors under the Notes and, as a result, investors could lose some or all of their investment.

The Issuer believes that the factors described below represent the principal risks inherent in investing in the Notes, but this section is not intended to be exhaustive and the inability of the Issuer to pay interest, principal or other amounts on or in connection with any Notes may be caused by events the occurrence of which, in the view of the Issuer, is so unlikely that they should not be considered significant risks based on information currently available to the Issuer or which it may not currently be able to anticipate.

Prospective investors should make their own independent evaluation of all risk factors contained in this section.

Words and expressions defined in the section entitled "Terms and Conditions of the Notes" herein shall have the same meanings in this section.

The order in which the following risks factors are presented is not an indication of the likelihood of their occurrence.

1. RISK FACTORS RELATING TO THE ISSUER

1.1 General legal and economic risks

Compliance with government policy, regulation or legislation in the countries in which the Issuer operates may affect its profitability.

The Issuer is subject to extensive regulation and supervision in the jurisdictions in which it does business. This includes, notably, matters relating to licensing and examination, rate setting, trade practices, policy reforms, limitations on the nature and amount of certain investments, underwriting and claims practices, guarantee funds, adequacy of its claims provisions, capital and surplus requirements, insurer solvency, the amount of dividends that may be paid and underwriting standards. Such regulation and supervision is primarily for the benefit and protection of policyholders and not for the benefit of investors. In some cases, regulation in one country may affect business operations in another country. As the amount and complexity of these regulations increase, the cost of compliance and the risk of non-compliance will also increase. If the Issuer does not meet regulatory or other requirements, the Issuer may suffer penalties including fines, suspension or cancellation of its insurance licenses which could adversely affect its ability to render its services and do business. In addition, significant regulatory action against the Issuer could have material adverse financial effects, cause significant reputational harm or harm its business prospects.

In addition, the Issuer may be adversely affected by changes in governmental policy or legislation applying to companies in the insurance industry. These changes include possible changes in regulations covering pricing and benefit payments for certain statutory classes of business, the deregulation and nationalization of certain classes of business, the regulation of selling practices, the regulations covering policy terms and the imposition of new taxes and assessments or increases in existing taxes and assessments. Regulatory changes may affect its existing and future businesses by, for example, causing customers to cancel or not renew existing policies or requiring the Issuer to change its range of products or to provide certain products (such as terrorism or flood cover where it is not already required) and services, redesign its technology or other systems, retrain its staff, pay increased tax or incur other costs. It is not possible to determine what changes in governmental policy or legislation will be adopted in any jurisdiction in which the Issuer operates and, if so, what form they will take or in what jurisdictions they may occur. Insurance laws or regulations that are adopted or amended may be more restrictive than its current requirements, may result in higher costs or limit its growth or otherwise adversely affect its operations.

Competition risk

There is substantial competition among general insurance companies in the jurisdictions in which the Issuer does business. The Issuer competes with general insurers many of whom have greater financial and marketing resources and greater name recognition than it have. The recent consolidation in the global financial services industry has also enhanced the competitive position of some of its competitors compared to the Issuer by broadening the range of its products and services, and increasing their distribution channels and their access to capital.

The BNP Paribas Cardif Group's competitors include not only other insurance companies, but also mutual fund companies, asset management firms and commercial and investment banks, many of which are regulated differently than the BNP Paribas Cardif Group is and may be able to offer alternative products or more competitive pricing than the BNP Paribas Cardif Group.

The level of profitability of a general insurance company is significantly influenced by the adequacy of premium income relative to its risk profile and claims exposure, as well as the general level of business costs. In addition, development of alternative distribution channels for certain types of insurance products, including through Internet may result in increasing competition as well as pressure on margins for certain types of products. These competitive pressures could result in increased pricing pressures on a number of the BNP Paribas Cardif Group's products and services, particularly as competitors seek to win market share, which could harm the BNP Paribas Cardif Group's ability to market certain products profitably.

Legal proceedings and litigation may adversely affect the Issuer's business, financial condition and results of operations.

All insurance companies are exposed to litigation relating to claims on policies they underwrite. Accordingly, the Issuer is currently involved in such legal proceedings relating to claims lodged by policyholders, some of which involve claims for substantial damages and other relief. Judicial decisions may expand coverage beyond the Issuer's pricing and reserving assumptions by widening liability on its policy wording or by restricting the application of policy exclusions. There can be no assurance that the outcome of any of its judicial proceedings will be covered by its existing provisions for outstanding claims or its reinsurance protections or that litigation would not otherwise have a material adverse effect on its businesses, financial condition and results of operations.

Changes in tax laws and regulations, including elimination of tax benefits for its products, may adversely affect sales of its insurance and investment advisory products, and also impact its deferred tax assets and liabilities.

Changes to tax laws may affect the attractiveness of certain of the Issuer's products, which currently have favourable tax treatment. From time to time, governments in the jurisdictions in which the Issuer operates, consider or implement proposals for changes in tax law that could adversely affect the attractiveness of the insurance, asset management and other products the Issuer offers. In addition, changes in tax laws or regulations or an operating performance below currently anticipated levels may lead to an impairment of deferred tax assets, in which case the Issuer could be obligated to write off certain tax assets. Tax assets may also need to be written down if certain assumptions of profitability prove to be incorrect, as losses incurred for longer than expected will make it more unlikely that the Issuer would be able to use its tax assets. Any such changes could be detrimental to its results of operations, financial condition and liquidity, and could impact the costs and profitability of its transactions.

The Issuer's businesses, and therefore its results of operation, financial condition and liquidity may be adversely affected by the disruption in the global financial markets.

Global credit and equity markets experienced extreme disruption from 2007 to 2012, particularly in Europe and the United States, and these markets have not fully recovered. This disruption included greater volatility, significantly less liquidity, widening of credit spreads and a lack of price transparency in certain markets. These conditions resulted in the failure of a number of financial institutions and unprecedented action by governmental authorities and central banks around the world. During the last years, there have been concerns over access to capital markets and the solvency of certain European Union member states, including Greece, Spain, Portugal, Ireland and Italy, unrest in Ukraine, the Middle East and North Africa, which has led to higher oil prices, and market volatility. If disruption to the global financial markets continues, it could adversely affect the Issuer's business, financial condition, results of operations and profitability in future periods. In addition, companies in its industry have become subject to increased litigation and regulatory and governmental scrutiny as a result of these events.

The Issuer may also turn to the market for short-, medium- or long-term financing as a result of a drop in unrealised gains, impairment of assets or a rise in surrender rates. Prolonged disruptions, uncertainty or volatility in the credit markets may limit its ability to access funding and capital, particularly its ability to issue longer-dated securities in international capital markets. These market conditions may limit the Issuer's ability to replace, in a timely manner, maturing liabilities and access the capital necessary to grow the Issuer's business. The Issuer may also be forced to delay raising longer term funding and capital, issue shorter tenors than it prefers, or pay unattractive interest rates, thereby increasing its debt expense, decreasing its profitability and significantly reducing its financial flexibility.

The performance of the Issuer is affected by general economic conditions and the cyclical nature of the insurance and reinsurance industries

The performance of the Issuer is affected by changes in economic conditions, both globally and in the particular countries in which the Issuer conducts its business. The general insurance market is cyclical in nature. Furthermore, the timing and application of these cycles differ among its geographic and product markets. Unpredictable developments also affect the industry's profitability, including changes in competitive conditions and pricing pressures, unforeseen developments in loss trends, market acceptance of new coverages, changes in operating expenses, fluctuations in inflation and interest rates and other changes in investment markets that affect market prices of investments and income from such investments. Fluctuations in the availability of capital could also have a significant influence on the cyclical nature of the insurance market. These cycles influence the demand for and pricing of its products and services and therefore affect the Issuer's financial position, profits and dividends. Accordingly, its results of operations may be adversely impacted if actual experience differs from management's estimates.

The European Union is currently in the process of introducing a new regime governing solvency requirements, technical reserves and other requirements for insurance companies, the effect of which is uncertain.

The European Union (EU) is in the process of developing and implementing a new regime in relation to solvency requirements and other matters, affecting the financial strength of insurers (Solvency 2) within each Member State. It is intended that the new regime for insurers domiciled in the European Union will inter alia apply more risk sensitive standards to capital requirements and will effect a full revision of the insurance industry's solvency framework, prudential regime and supervision mechanisms.

The European Parliament and Council of the European Union approved the directive containing the framework principles of Solvency 2 on 22 April and 10 November 2009, respectively. This directive has been amended by the Omnibus II directive on 11 March 2014 which supplements the Solvency 2 Directive and introduces transitional measures. At present, it is expected that the regime will become binding on insurers within each Member State from 1 January 2016. The EU Commission is expected to publish the "level two" implementing measures and "level three" guidance in 2015. On 31 October 2014, the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority has submitted to the EU Commission the first set of draft implementing technical standards on approval processes for Solvency 2.

While the overall intentions and process for implementing Solvency 2 are known, the future landscape of EU solvency regulation is still evolving, and the precise interpretation of the rules is still being developed. At this stage, significant uncertainties with respect to some of the implementing measures remain.

Further, Solvency 2 may have a pro-cyclical effect on insurers and increase the impact of any existing or future crisis on the Issuer's solvency.

If the Issuer were to fail to implement Solvency 2 within the time required by the regulations, such delay could result in regulatory sanctions and/or reputational risk for the Issuer. More generally, the implementation of Solvency 2 could, through its resulting costs and uncertainties, have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, solvency margin, dividend policy, results of operations and therefore the business and prospects of the Issuer.

A downgrade in the Issuer's rating may increase policy cancellations and non-renewals, adversely affect relationships with distributors and negatively impact new business

The Issuer insurer financial strength rating is an important factor in establishing and maintaining its competitive position. The rating agency regularly reviews its rating and the ratings of the main affiliates of the group including BNP Paribas. Changes in rating methodology may also lead the rating agency to modify its rating. Future downgrades in the ratings of any of its subsidiaries (or the potential for such a downgrade) could, among other things, materially increase the number of policy cancellations and non-renewals, adversely affect relationships with the distributors of its products and services, including new sales of its products, and negatively impact the level of its premiums and adversely affect its ability to obtain reinsurance at reasonable prices or at all. This could adversely affect the Issuer's businesses, financial condition, results of operations and its cost of capital.

Potential changes to French General Accepted Accounting Principles

The Issuer publishes its consolidated accounts in accordance with the French General Accepted Accounting Principles (French GAAP). These Standards are subject to interpretation and evolution on a continuing basis.

The Issuer cannot predict with any certainty at this time the potential impact of any potential future modifications to the French GAAP; however any significant modifications to the French GAAP may adversely impact its results of operations and financial condition.

1.2 Insurance risks

The Issuer is exposed to the following insurance risks:

Pricing risk

This risk may arise as a result of premiums being too low to meet the commitments (risk of wrong assessment of the characteristics of the policy holder risk, risk of wrong evaluation of the premium). The launch of new products or changes to existing products may lead to the occurrence of this type of risk. The occurrence of such risk may affect the Issuer's profits and financial situation.

Provision risk

This risk may arise if insufficient provision is made to meet commitments due to wrong assessment of available data, subsequent modification of the risk factors or inappropriate calculation parameters. The occurrence of such risk may affect the Issuer's profits and financial situation.

Disaster risk

The risk for an insurer of the sudden occurrence of an incident involving very large claims or an accumulation of incidents due to a single event (for example, a pandemic risk). The occurrence of such risk may affect the Issuer's profits and financial situation.

Longevity, mortality and morbidity risk

The Issuer may be affected by significant change in statistics of longevity, mortality or morbidity of its policyholders. The occurrence of such risk may affect the Issuer's profits and financial situation.

Surrender risk

Savings contracts include a surrender clause allowing policyholders to request reimbursement of all or part of their accumulated savings. The Issuer is exposed to the risk of surrender volumes being higher than the forecasts used for asset liability management purposes, which may force the Issuer to sell assets at a loss.

For unit linked insurance contracts, risks linked to contracts with a guaranteed minimum benefit

For unit linked insurance contracts, unit linked liabilities are equal to the sum of the market values of the assets held in the unit-linked portfolios. The Issuer's liability is therefore covered by corresponding assets. The match between unit-linked liabilities and the related assets is controlled at monthly intervals only.

Lapse and transfer risk

The Issuer may be affected by significant change in lapse of life insurance contracts or by transfer of group pension contracts to another insurer. The occurrence of such risk may affect the Issuer's profits and financial situation.

Reinsurance risk

An insurance company will usually attempt to limit its risks in particular lines of business or from specific events by using outward reinsurance arrangements. The Issuer has exposure to its reinsurers through its reinsurance arrangements. In such arrangements, the other insurers assume part of the cost, losses and expenses associated with incidents, and losses whether or not carried over, in exchange for a proportion of the premiums. The ability to make a claim under, and the amount and cost of, the reinsurance depends on general market conditions and may vary significantly. Any decrease in the amount of reinsurance cover purchased will increase the risk of loss for the Issuer. When reinsurance is put in place, the Issuer remains liable for transferred risks if the reinsurer does not fulfil its obligations. Default by a reinsurer could therefore affect the Issuer's profits and financial situation.

1.3 Financial risks

The Issuer is exposed to the following financial risks:

Market risks

The market risk affects the yield of the assets backing the core capital and technical provisions of the Issuer. Market levels and returns on investment constitute a significant part of the overall profitability of the Issuer and fluctuations in financial markets may have a material effect on operating results.

Moreover, policy holder returns on non-unit-linked life insurance policies are based on either a fixed rate specified in the policy or a variable rate, with or without a minimum guaranteed return. All of these policies give rise to an interest rate and asset value risk, corresponding to the risk that the return on admissible assets (i.e. assets acquired by investing premiums) is less than the contractual return payable to policyholders.

Global debt and equity market have experienced historical levels of volatility and the outlook is uncertain. Any decline in the financial markets could have an adverse effect on the financial situation, operating results and cash flow of the Issuer.

Fluctuations in interest rates may affect the yields on and the market value of notes.

- During periods when interest rates are going up, the price of fixed income securities tends to decrease and gains on sale of such securities are lower or losses greater.
- If the interest rates are low for a long time, investment could be affected in a sense that it would not match the liability requirement.

Risk relating to investment portfolio

Likewise, the yield on assets representing technical commitments is key in the definition of beneficiary participations attributed to the policy holders. Variations in interest rates and returns on equity markets may also have an impact on policyholders' behaviour. This phenomenon is particularly seen in the Issuer's life insurance and savings business.

Investment risk on life insurance portfolios is sometimes borne by the policy holders in the case of unit-linked life insurance policies. In these cases, fluctuations of the price of underlying securities will directly or indirectly affect the financial results of the life insurance business operations. Furthermore such fluctuations could affect the solvency of the Issuer, in particular the level of unrealised gains eligible to cover the solvency margin requirement.

Currency risk

This risk relates to the sensitivity of assets to changes in the currency in which assets may be recorded on the balance sheet.

Counterparty risk

The Issuer is exposed to counterparty risk in its relations with third parties. The Issuer is mainly exposed to credit risk through its financial assets, and securities lending. A default by any of its counterparties could have an effect on its financial situation.

A solvency default by a counterparty could generate significant liquidity problems and cause other institutions to default. Stability of such institutions depends greatly on the trends in the market, notably through credit and other financial flows linking these institutions together. This risk can adversely affect the financial intermediaries, banks and depositories with which the Issuer operates daily which may therefore adversely affect its income, returns and solvency.

Liquidity risk

There is a risk that the Issuer cannot sell a financial asset at its true value or cannot sell it at all. The Issuer also faces the risk that it cannot meet its obligations, such as being able to reimburse the policy holders requesting it.

1.4 Operational risks

The Issuer defines operational risk as the risk of loss due to inappropriate or failure of procedures, individuals or systems or loss resulting from external events.

Operational risks can be classified into the following categories:

- Risk of internal or external fraud: from an employee or a third party, whether a customer, a beneficiary or a partner.
- Human resources and skills risk: this relates to the inadequacy between the available skills and the needs (key-men, training), errors in setting hiring, salaries and careers management policies, social relations in relation to employees representation or negotiation processes.
- The risks relating to information systems which include risks relating to the planning of systems development, risk of design, development and maintenance of applications, risks attached to the use of applications and softwares.
- Risks attached to the conduct of operations: information reliability, compliance of procedures, reliability of deliverables, human errors and monitoring of activities.
- Risks relating to operational organisation: this relates to the inadequacy between the strategy and the organisation of the Issuer, the inefficiency of defined processes or inappropriate definition of interfaces.
- Security risks: continuity and resuming activities (establishment of a business continuity plan), goods and individuals.
- Risks relating to outsourcing and suppliers: dysfunction or termination of commercial relations with a sub-contractor, contractualisation and compliance of obligations.
- Commercial and partnership risks: risks regarding the default of a partner, the sharing of responsibilities, commissioning, products distribution, knowledge of clients' needs and ethics.

- Development risks: adequacy between offer and the market, internal or external growth, risks relating to external communications.
- Risks relating to professional conduct: failure to comply with professional conducts when dealing with clients.
- Risks relating to anti-money laundering: the Issuer has set up anti-money laundering policies in order to efficiently prevent money laundering.
- Insurance and risk hedging: subscribed insurance policies relate to insurances regarding damage to goods, civil liability insurances and individuals insurances. The subscribed insurances and levels of self- insurance vary depending on the activities, the size and claim rates of the related entities.

The occurrence of any such above operational risks may affect the Issuer's business, profits and financial situation.

1.5 The risk management policies, procedures and methods may leave the Issuer exposed to unforeseen or unidentified risks.

The Issuer has engaged significant resources to develop evaluation policies, procedures and methods to manage operational, liquidity, credit and market risks and plans to continue making efforts in this direction in the future.

However the Issuer's risk management strategies and techniques may not be entirely effective in mitigating exposure to risk in all market environments or against all types of risks, including those risks that the Issuer has not yet identified or anticipated.

If potential or existing customers believe that the risk management procedures and policies of the Issuer are not appropriate, the Issuer's reputation as well as its revenues and profits may be adversely affected.

2. RISK FACTORS RELATING TO THE NOTES

Capitalised expressions used below have the meaning ascribed to them in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

2.1 General Risks relating to the Notes

Independent review and advice

Each prospective investor in the Notes must determine, based on its own independent review and such professional advice as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, that its acquisition of the Notes is fully consistent with its financial needs, objectives and condition, complies and is fully consistent with all investment policies, guidelines and restrictions applicable to it and is a fit, proper and suitable investment for it, notwithstanding the clear and substantial risks inherent in investing in or holding the Notes.

Each prospective investor should consult its own advisers as to legal, tax and related aspects of an investment in the Notes. A prospective investor may not rely on the Issuer or the Joint Lead Managers or any of their respective affiliates in connection with its determination as to the legality of its acquisition of the Notes or as to the other matters referred to above.

The Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors

Each potential investor in the Notes must determine the suitability of that investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor should:

- (a) have sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the Notes and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Prospectus or any applicable supplement;
- (b) have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the Notes and the impact the Notes will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (c) have sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Notes, including where the currency for principal or interest payments is different from the potential investor's currency;
- (d) understand thoroughly the terms of the Notes and be familiar with the behaviour of financial markets;
- (e) be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks; and
- (f) consult their legal advisers in relation to possible legal or fiscal risks that may be associated with any investment in the Notes.

The Notes are complex financial instruments. Sophisticated institutional investors generally purchase complex financial instruments as part of a wider financial structure rather than as standalone investments. They purchase complex financial instruments as a way to reduce risk or enhance yield with an understood, measured, appropriate addition of risk to their overall portfolios. A potential investor should not invest in the Notes unless it has the expertise (either alone or with a financial adviser) to evaluate how the Notes will perform under changing conditions, the resulting effects on the value of the Notes and the impact this investment will have on the potential investor's overall investment portfolio.

Legality of purchase

Neither the Issuer, the Joint Lead Managers nor any of their respective affiliates has or assumes responsibility for the lawfulness of the acquisition of the Notes by a prospective investor, whether under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or the jurisdiction in which it operates (if different), or for compliance by that prospective investor with any law, regulation or regulatory policy applicable to it.

The trading market for the Notes may be volatile and may be adversely impacted by many events

The market value of the Notes will be affected by the creditworthiness of the Issuer and a number of additional factors. The market for the Notes may be influenced by economic and market conditions, political events in France or elsewhere and, to varying degrees, interest rates, currency exchange rates and inflation rates in other European and other industrialised countries. There can be no assurance that events in France, Europe or elsewhere will not cause market volatility or that such volatility will not adversely affect the price of the Notes or that economic and market conditions will not have any other adverse effect. The price at which a Noteholder will be able to sell the Notes may be at a discount, which could be substantial, from the issue price or the purchase price paid by such purchaser.

Exchange rate risks and exchange controls

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Notes in Euro. This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the Investor's Currency) other than Euro. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of Euro or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to the Euro would decrease (a) the Investor's Currency-equivalent yield on the Notes, (b) the Investor's Currency equivalent value of the principal payable on the Notes and (c) the Investor's Currency-equivalent market value of the Notes.

Government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

Interest rate risks during the Fixed Rate Period

The Notes bearing interest at a fixed rate from (and including) the Issue Date, to (but excluding) the First Call Date, investment in the Notes involves the risk that subsequent changes in market interest rates may adversely affect the value of the Notes.

Interest rate risks during a Floating Interest Rate Period

Interest on the Notes for each Floating Interest Rate Period shall be calculated on the basis of three (3) month EURIBOR. This rate is a floating rate and as such is not pre-defined for the lifespan of the Notes; conversely a floating rate allows investors to follow market changes with an instrument reflecting changes in the levels of yields. Higher rates mean a higher interest and lower rates mean a lower interest.

Credit ratings

Credit ratings are expected to be assigned to the Notes by one independent credit rating agency (see cover page of this Prospectus for more information). The rating may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed herein, and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. A rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision, suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time. A revision, suspension or withdrawal of a rating may adversely affect the market price of the Notes. In particular, such suspension, reduction or withdrawal of a credit rating may result from a change in the rating methodology of the assigning rating agency.

The Issuer's credit rating by S&P is linked to the credit rating of BNP Paribas. A downgrade of BNP Paribas may affect the credit ratings of the Issuer and the Notes.

Credit ratings assigned to the Issuer or the Notes may not reflect all the risks associated with an investment in the Notes

In general, European regulated investors are restricted under Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 (as amended) (the CRA Regulation) from using credit ratings for regulatory purposes, unless such ratings are issued by a credit rating agency established in the EU and registered under the CRA Regulation (and such registration has not been withdrawn or suspended subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances whilst the registration application is pending). Such general restriction will also apply in the case of credit ratings issued by non-EU credit rating agencies, unless the relevant credit ratings are endorsed by an EU-registered credit rating agency or the relevant non-EU rating agency is certified in accordance with the CRA Regulation (and such endorsement action or certification, as the case may be, has not been withdrawn or suspended). The list of registered and certified rating agencies published by the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) on its website in accordance with the CRA Regulation is not conclusive evidence of the status of the relevant rating agency included in such list, as there may be delays between certain supervisory measures being taken against a relevant rating agency and the publication of the updated ESMA list.

An active trading market for the Notes may not develop

Notes may have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop. If a market does develop, it may not be liquid. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Notes easily or at prices that provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market. Illiquidity may have an adverse effect on the market value of Notes. There is no assurance as to the development or liquidity of any trading market for the Notes. The Issuer is entitled to buy the Notes, which shall then be cancelled or caused to be cancelled, and to issue further Notes. Such transactions may favourably or adversely affect the price development of the Notes. If additional and competing products are introduced in the markets, this may adversely affect the value of the Notes.

Potential Conflicts of Interest

All or some of the Joint Lead Managers (and, in particular, BNP Paribas, the parent company of the Issuer) and their affiliates have engaged, and/or may in the future engage, in investment banking, commercial banking and other financial advisory and commercial dealings with the Issuer and its affiliates and in relation to securities issued by any entity of the Group. They have or may (a) engage in investment banking, trading or hedging activities including in activities that may include prime brokerage business, financing transactions or entry into derivative transactions, (b) act as underwriters in connection with offering of shares or other securities issued by any entity of the Group or (c) act as financial advisers to the Issuer or other companies of the Group. In the context of these transactions, some of such Joint Lead Managers have or may hold shares or other securities issued by entities of the Group. Where applicable, they have or will receive customary fees and commissions for these transactions.

Modification of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes

Noteholders will be grouped automatically for the defence of their common interests in a Masse, as defined in Condition 12.1 (The Masse) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, and a general meeting of Noteholders can be held. The Terms and Conditions of the Notes permit in certain cases defined majorities to bind all Noteholders including Noteholders who did not attend and vote at the relevant general meeting and Noteholders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

The general meeting of Noteholders may, subject to Condition 12.6 (Powers of General Assemblies) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, deliberate on any proposal relating to the modification of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, notably on any proposal, whether for arbitration or settlement, relating to rights in controversy or which were subject of judicial decisions.

Change of law

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes are based on French law in effect as at the date of this Prospectus. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial or administrative decision or change in French law or the official application or interpretation of French law after the date of this Prospectus.

Taxation

Payments of interest on the Notes, or profits realised by the Noteholder upon the sale or repayment of the Notes, may be subject to taxation or documentary charges or duties in its home jurisdiction or in other jurisdiction in which it is required to pay taxes. In some jurisdictions, no official statements of the tax authorities or court decisions may be available for financial instruments such as the Notes. Potential investors are advised not to rely upon the tax summary contained in this Prospectus but to ask for their own tax adviser's advice on their individual taxation with respect to the acquisition, holding, sale and redemption of the Notes. Only these advisers are in a position to duly consider the specific situation of each potential investor. This investment consideration has to be read in connection with the taxation sections of this Prospectus. The Issuer advises all investors to contact their own tax advisors for advice on the tax impact of an investment in the Notes.

A Noteholder's effective yield on the Notes may be diminished by the tax impact on that Noteholder of its investment in the Notes.

Interest payments in respect of the Notes may be subject to the EU Directive on the Taxation of Savings Income

Under the Council Directive 2003/48/EC on taxation of savings income in the form of interest payments (the Savings Directive), Member States, subject to a number of conditions being met, are required to provide to the tax authorities of other Member States details of payments of interest and other similar income made or secured by a paying agent located within their jurisdiction to, or for the benefit of, an individual resident in that other Member State and to certain limited types of entities established in that other Member State. On 24 March 2014, the Council of the European Union adopted a Council Directive amending and broadening the scope of the requirements described above. Member States are required to apply these new requirements from 1 January 2017. The changes will expand the range of payments covered by the Directive, in particular to include additional types of income payable on securities. The Directive will also expand the circumstances in which payments that indirectly benefit an individual resident in a Member State must be reported. This approach will apply to payments made to, or secured for, persons, entities or legal arrangements (including trusts) where certain conditions are satisfied, and may in some cases apply where the person, entity or arrangement is established or effectively managed outside of the European Union. For a transitional period, Luxembourg and Austria are instead required (unless during that period they elect otherwise) to operate a withholding system in relation to such payments (the ending of such transitional period being dependent upon the conclusion of certain other agreements relating to information exchange with certain other countries). The rate of withholding is 35 per cent. The changes referred to above will broaden the types of payments subject to withholding in those Member States which still operate a withholding system when they are implemented. Luxembourg has announced its intention to elect out of the withholding system in favour of automatic exchange of information with effect from 1 January 2015. The end of the transitional period is dependent upon the conclusion of certain other agreements relating to information exchange with certain other countries. A number of non-EU countries and territories (including Switzerland) have adopted similar measures (a withholding system in the case of Switzerland).

If a payment were to be made or collected through a Member State which has opted for a withholding system under the Savings Directive and an amount of, or in respect of, tax is withheld from that payment, neither the Issuer nor any Paying Agent nor any other person would be obliged to pay additional amounts with respect to any Note, as a result of the imposition of such withholding tax.

Sections 1471 through 1474 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (FATCA) impose a new reporting regime and, potentially, a 30% withholding tax with respect to (a) certain payments from sources within the United States, (b) "foreign passthru payments" made to certain non-U.S. financial institutions that do not comply with this new reporting regime, and (c) payments to certain investors that do not provide identification information with respect to interests issued by a participating non-U.S. financial institution. While the Notes are held within Euroclear France, Clearstream, Luxembourg or Euroclear (the ICSDs), in all but the most remote circumstances, it is not expected that FATCA will affect the amount of any payment received by the ICSDs. However, FATCA may affect payments made to custodians or intermediaries in the subsequent payment chain leading to the ultimate investor if any such custodian or intermediary generally is unable to receive payments free of FATCA withholding. It also may affect payment to any ultimate investor that is a financial institution that is not entitled to receive payments free of withholding under FATCA, or an ultimate investor that fails to provide its broker (or other custodian or intermediary from which it receives payment) with any information, forms, other documentation or consents that may be necessary for the payments to be made free of FATCA withholding. Investors should choose the custodians or intermediaries with care (to ensure each is compliant with FATCA or other laws or agreements related to FATCA) and provide each custodian or intermediary with any information, forms, other documentation, or consents that may be necessary for such custodian or intermediary to make a payment free of FATCA withholding. Investors should consult their own tax adviser to obtain a more detailed explanation of FATCA and how FATCA may affect them. The Issuer's obligations under the Notes are discharged once it has paid the ICSDs and the Issuer has therefore no responsibility for any amount thereafter transmitted through the ICSDs and custodians or intermediaries. If an amount in respect of such withholding tax were to be deducted or withheld from interest, principal or other payments made in respect of the Notes, neither the Issuer nor any paying agent nor any other person would, pursuant to the conditions of the Notes, be required to pay additional amounts as a result of the deduction or withholding. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected. Prospective investors should refer to the section "Taxation – U.S. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act."

Financial transaction tax

On 14 February 2013, the European Commission published a proposal (the Commission's Proposal) for a Directive for a common financial transaction tax (FTT) in Austria, Belgium, Estonia, France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia and Spain (the Participating Member States).

The proposed FTT has very broad scope and, if introduced in its current form, could apply to certain dealings in the Notes (including secondary market transactions) in certain circumstances.

Under the Commission's Proposal, the FTT could apply in certain circumstances to persons both within and outside of the Participating Member States. Generally, it would apply to certain dealings in the Notes provided that at least one party to the transaction is established or deemed established in a Participating Member State and that there is a financial institution established or deemed established in a Participating Member State which is party to the transaction, acting either for its own account or for the account of another person, or acting in the name of a party to the transaction. A financial institution may be, or be deemed to be, "established" in a Participating Member State in a broad range of circumstances, including (a) by transacting with a person established in a Participating Member State or (b) where the financial instrument which is subject to the dealings is issued in a Participating Member State.

A joint statement issued on 6 May 2014 by ministers of the Participating Member States (other than Slovenia) indicated an intention to implement the FTT progressively, such that it would initially apply to shares and certain derivatives, with this initial implementation occurring by 1 January 2016.

The Commission's Proposal remains subject to negotiation between the Participating Member States. It may therefore be altered prior to any implementation. Additional EU Member States may decide to participate.

Prospective investors should consult their own tax advisers in relation to the consequences of the FTT associated with purchasing and disposing of the Notes.

French Insolvency Law

Under French insolvency law, holders of debt securities, are automatically grouped into a single assembly of holders (the Assembly) in order to defend their common interests if a safeguard procedure (procédure de sauvegarde), an accelerated financial safeguard procedure (procédure de sauvegarde financière accélérée), an accelerated safeguard procedure (procédure de sauvegarde accélérée) or a judicial reorganisation procedure (procédure de redressement judiciaire) is opened in France with respect to the Issuer.

The Assembly comprises holders of all debt securities issued by the Issuer (including the Notes), whether or not under a debt issuance programme (such as a euro medium term notes programme) and regardless of their governing law.

The Assembly deliberates on the proposed safeguard plan (projet de plan de sauvegarde), accelerated financial safeguard plan (projet de plan de sauvegarde financière accélérée), accelerated safeguard plan (projet de plan de sauvegarde accélérée) or judicial reorganisation plan (projet de plan de redressement) applicable to the Issuer and may further agree to:

- increase the liabilities (charges) of holders of debt securities (including the Noteholders) by rescheduling due payments and/or partially or totally writing-off receivables in the form of debt securities;
- establish an unequal treatment between holders of debt securities (including the Noteholders) as appropriate under the circumstances; and/or
- decide to convert debt securities (including the Notes) into securities that give or may give rights to share capital.

Decisions of the Assembly will be taken by a two-third majority (calculated as a proportion of the debt securities held by the holders attending such Assembly or represented thereat). No quorum is required to convene the Assembly.

The procedures, as described above or as they will or may be amended, could have an adverse impact on Noteholders seeking repayment in the event that the Issuer were to become insolvent or otherwise subject to any of the foregoing procedures.

For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions relating to the representation of the Noteholders described in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes set out in this Prospectus will not be applicable with respect to the Assembly to the extent they conflict with compulsory insolvency law provisions that apply in these circumstances.

Legal investment considerations may restrict certain investments

The investment activities of certain investors are subject to legal investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. Each potential investor should consult its legal advisers to determine whether and to what extent (a) the Notes are legal investments for it, (b) Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowing and (c) other restrictions apply to its purchase or pledge of any Notes. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisors or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules.

2.2 Risks relating to the structure of the Notes

The Notes are subordinated obligations of the Issuer

The obligations of the Issuer under the Notes in respect of principal and interest (including any outstanding Arrears of Interest and Additional Interest Amount) constitute direct, unconditional, unsecured and undated subordinated obligations of the Issuer and the Notes rank and will rank pari passu without any preference among themselves and with other Ordinarily Subordinated Obligations of the Issuer. Subject to applicable law, in the event of the voluntary or judicial liquidation (liquidation amiable ou liquidation judiciaire) of the Issuer, bankruptcy proceedings or any other similar proceedings affecting the Issuer or if the Issuer is liquidated for any other reason, the rights of Noteholders to payment under the Notes rank:

- (i) subordinated to the full payment of the unsubordinated creditors (including depositors and creditors whose claims arise under contracts entered into for the purposes of any liquidation);
- (ii) pari passu with any Ordinary Subordinated Obligations of the Issuer; and
- (iii) prior to any prêts participatifs granted to the Issuer, any Deeply Subordinated Obligations and any payments to holders of Equity Securities.

If any judgement is rendered by any competent court declaring the judicial liquidation (liquidation judiciaire) or, following the sale of the whole business (cession totale de l'entreprise) of the Issuer, or if the Issuer is liquidated for any other reason, the rights of the Noteholders in respect of principal, interest (including any outstanding Arrears of Interest and Additional Interest Amount) will be subordinated to the payments of claims of other creditors of the Issuer (other than subordinated claims) including insurance companies and entities referred to in article R.322-132 of the French Code des assurances reinsured by the Issuer, and holders of insurance policies issued by such entities and creditors with respect to unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer.

In the event of incomplete payment of creditors ranking senior to Noteholders (in the context of voluntary or judicial liquidation of the Issuer, bankruptcy proceedings or any other similar proceedings affecting the Issuer) the obligations of the Issuer in connection with the Notes and relative interest will be terminated.

Thus, the Noteholders face a higher performance risk than holders of unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer.

Restrictions on interest payment

On any Mandatory Interest Deferral Date (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes), the Issuer will be obliged to defer payment of all (but not some only) of the interest accrued (and, if relevant, any Arrears of Interest and Additional Interest Amounts thereon) to that date (and any such failure to pay shall not constitute a default by the Issuer for any purpose), provided however that if (to the extent the Relevant Supervisory Authority can give such consent in accordance with the Existing Regulations or the Solvency 2 Regulations), the Relevant Supervisory Authority accepts that interest accrued (and, if relevant, any Arrears of Interest and Additional Interest Amounts thereon) in respect of the Notes during such Interest Period can be paid, the relevant Interest Payment Date will not be a Mandatory Interest Deferral Date.

Any interest not paid on a Mandatory Interest Deferral Date and deferred shall so long as it remains outstanding constitute Arrears of Interest.

Any deferral of interest payments will be likely to have an adverse effect on the market price of the Notes. In addition, as a result of the above provisions of the Notes, the market price of the Notes may be more volatile than the market prices of other debt securities on which interest accrues that are not subject to the above provisions and may be more sensitive generally to adverse changes in the Issuer's financial condition.

Early redemption risk

Subject to the Prior Approval of the Relevant Supervisory Authority, the Issuer may redeem the Notes in whole, but not in part, on the Interest Payment Date falling on the First Call Date or on any Interest Payment Date thereafter.

Subject to the Prior Approval of the Relevant Supervisory Authority, the Issuer may also, at its option, redeem the Notes at any time for tax reasons or upon the occurrence of a Capital Disqualification Event or an Accounting Event or if the conditions for a Clean-up Call are satisfied, as set out in "Terms and Conditions of the Notes — Redemption and Purchase".

Such redemption options will be made at the Base Call Price (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes) and will be exercised at the principal amount of the Notes together with interest accrued to the date of redemption (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Arrears of Interest and Additional Interest Amounts (if any) thereon at such date).

The redemption at the option of the Issuer may affect the market value of the Notes. During any period when the Issuer may elect to redeem the Notes, the market value of the Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This may also be true prior to the First Call Date.

The Issuer may also be expected to redeem the Notes when its cost of borrowing is lower than the interest rate on the Notes. There can be no assurance that, at the relevant time, Noteholders will be able to reinvest the amounts received upon redemption at a rate that will provide the same return as their investment in the Notes. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

The Notes are undated securities

The Notes are undated securities with no fixed redemption or maturity date. The Issuer is under no obligation to redeem the Notes at any time. The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer on the First Call Date or on any subsequent Interest Payment Date or, in certain circumstances specified in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, before that date. There is no assurance, however, that the Issuer will opt to redeem the Notes. Prospective investors should be aware that they may be required to bear the financial risks of an investment in the Notes for an indefinite period of time.

There are no events of default under the Notes

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes do not provide for events of default allowing acceleration of the Notes if certain events occur. Accordingly, if the Issuer fails to meet any obligations under the Notes, including the payment of any interest, investors will not have the right of acceleration of principal. Upon a payment default, the sole remedy available to Noteholders for recovery of amounts owing in respect of any payment of principal or interest on the Notes will be the institution of proceedings to enforce such payment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer will not, by virtue of the institution of any such proceedings, be obliged to pay any sum or sums sooner than the same would otherwise have been payable by it.

No limitation on issuing or guaranteeing debt ranking senior or "pari passu" with the Notes

There is no restriction on the amount of debt which the Issuer may issue or guarantee. The Issuer and its subsidiaries and affiliates may incur additional indebtedness or grant guarantees in respect of indebtedness of third parties, including indebtedness or guarantees that rank pari passu or senior to the obligations under and in connection with the Notes. If the Issuer's financial condition were to deteriorate, the Noteholders could suffer direct and materially adverse consequences, including deferral of interest and, if the Issuer were liquidated (whether voluntarily or not), the Noteholders could suffer loss of their entire investment.

Optional redemption, substitution or variation of the Notes

The Notes are issued for capital adequacy regulatory purposes with the intention that all the proceeds of the Notes be eligible, (x) before the implementation of the Solvency 2 Directive, for the purpose of the determination of the solvency margin or capital adequacy levels of the Issuer or (y) following the implementation of the Solvency 2 Directive as at least "tier two" own funds regulatory capital (including any grandfathering provision thereof) (or whatever the terminology employed by future regulations) for the purpose of the determination of the regulatory capital of the Issuer.

The Issuer's expectation is based on its review of available information relating to the implementation of Solvency 2. However, such information has not been finalised and is subject to change prior to the implementation of Solvency 2.

In particular, there continue to be material uncertainties around the impact of the more detailed technical requirements of Solvency 2. The new framework will, among other things, cover the definition of "own funds" capital and, accordingly, will set out the features which any capital must have in order to qualify as regulatory capital. This new framework also contains grandfathering provisions applying to capital instruments issued before the implementation of the Solvency 2 Directive, such as the Notes. However, the grandfathering regime contained in the so-called Omnibus II Directive, remains subject to interpretation by the regulators, including the Relevant Supervisory Authority.

These features are not expected to be settled until, at the earliest, 'level two' implementation measures and "level three" guidance relating to Solvency 2 are finalised in 2014 and there can be no assurance that, following their initial publication, the 'level two' implementation measures and "level three" guidance will not be amended. Moreover, there is considerable uncertainty as to how regulators, including the Autorité de contrôle prudentiel et de résolution (ACPR), will interpret the Solvency 2 Directive, the 'level two' implementation measures and/or "level three" guidance and apply them to the Issuer or the Group.

Accordingly, there is a risk that, after the issue of the Notes, a Capital Disqualification Event may occur which would entitle the Issuer, without the consent or approval of the Noteholders, to substitute or vary the Notes, subject to not being prejudicial to the interest of the Noteholders, so that after such substitution or variation they would be eligible as provided for under (x) or (y) above.

Alternatively, the Issuer reserves the right, under the same circumstances, to redeem the Notes early as further described in "Early redemption risk" above and in the "Terms and Conditions of the Notes - Redemption and Purchase".

In such a case, an investor may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to reinvest at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

The Notes may also be redeemed, substituted or varied without the consent of the Noteholders further to a Capital Disqualification Event, an Accounting Event, a Tax Event, or a Clean-up Call.

In addition, the Issuer may (subject, in particular, to the prior approval of the Relevant Supervisory Authority) redeem the Notes at any time for tax reasons or following a Capital Disqualification Event or an Accounting Event or if the conditions for a Clean-up Call are satisfied, as set out in "Terms"

Status of the Notes:

The principal and interest (including any outstanding Arrears of Interest and Additional Interest Amount) on the Notes constitute direct, unconditional, unsecured and undated subordinated obligations of the Issuer and the Notes rank and will rank pari passu without any preference among themselves and with other Ordinarily Subordinated Obligations of the Issuer. Subject to applicable law, in the event of the voluntary or judicial liquidation (liquidation amiable ou liquidation judiciaire) of the Issuer, bankruptcy proceedings or any other similar proceedings affecting the Issuer or if the Issuer is liquidated for any other reason, the rights of Noteholders to payment under the Notes rank:

- (i) subordinated to the full payment of the unsubordinated creditors (including depositors and creditors whose claims arise under contracts entered into for the purposes of any liquidation);
- (ii) pari passu with any other Ordinarily Subordinated Obligations of the Issuer; and
- (iii) prior to any prêts participatifs granted to the Issuer, any Deeply Subordinated Obligations and any payments to holders of Equity Securities.

Where:

Deeply Subordinated Obligations means any deeply subordinated obligations (obligations subordonnées de dernier rang) or other instruments issued by the Issuer which rank, or are expressed to rank, pari passu among themselves and junior to the Ordinarily Subordinated Obligations of the Issuer and any prêts participatifs granted to the Issuer. For the avoidance of doubt, the Issuer does not have any outstanding Deeply Subordinated Obligations at the time of issue of the Notes.

Equity Securities means (a) the ordinary shares (actions ordinaires) of the Issuer and (b) any other class of the Issuer's share capital (including preference shares (actions de préférence) as the case may be).

Ordinarily Subordinated Obligations means any subordinated obligations or other instruments issued by the Issuer which rank, or are expressed to rank, pari passu among themselves and with the Notes, and constitute direct, unconditional, unsecured and subordinated obligations of the Issuer. Negative Pledge:

None.

Enforcement events:

There will be no events of default in respect of the Notes. However, each Note shall become immediately due and payable at its Principal Amount, together with accrued interest thereon, if any, to the date of payment and any Arrears of Interest (including any Additional Interest Amount thereon), in the event that an order is made or an effective resolution is passed for the liquidation (liquidation amiable ou liquidation judiciaire) or the Issuer is liquidated for any other reason, in accordance with the provisions relating to the Status of the Notes, or the sale of the whole business (cession totale de l'entreprise) subsequent to the opening of a judicial recovery procedure of the Issuer.

Rate of Interest:

Each Note shall bear interest on its Principal Amount:

- (i) at a fixed interest rate of 4.032 per cent. per annum (the Fixed Interest Rate) during a Fixed Interest Rate Period, payable annually in arrear on each Fixed Interest Rate Payment Date commencing on 25 November 2015 until (and including) the First Call Date; and
- (ii) at the Floating Interest Rate during a Floating Interest Rate Period until, but excluding, the Redemption Date, payable quarterly in arrear on each Floating Interest Rate Payment Date, provided, however, that if any Floating Interest Rate Payment Date would otherwise fall on a date which is not a Business Day, it will be postponed to the next Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which case it will be brought forward to the preceding Business Day.

The Notes will cease to bear interest from and including the due date for redemption unless payment of the principal in respect of the Notes is improperly withheld or refused on such date or unless default is otherwise made in respect of the payment. In such event, the Notes will continue to bear interest at the relevant Rate of Interest on their remaining unpaid amount until the day on which all sums due in respect of the Notes up to that day are received by or on behalf of the relevant Noteholders.

The Floating Interest Rate for each Floating Interest Rate Period shall be the sum of the Reference Rate and the Margin. If on any Interest Determination Date, the Floating Interest Rate is less than zero, such Floating Interest Rate shall be deemed to be zero.

Where:

Reference Rate means the 3 month EURIBOR, being the offered rate, expressed as a rate per annum, for three (3) month Euro deposits commencing on the first day of the relevant Floating Interest Rate Period, as calculated by Bridge Information Systems on behalf of the European Banking Federation and the International Foreign Exchange Dealers' Association.

Margin: In respect of each Floating Interest Rate Period, 3.93 per cent. per annum.

Interest Rate Period: A Fixed Interest Rate Period or Floating Interest Rate Period.

Where:

Fixed Interest Rate Period means the period beginning on (and including) the Issue Date and ending on (but excluding) the first Fixed Interest Rate Payment Date and each successive period beginning on (and including) a Fixed Interest Rate Payment Date and ending on (but excluding) the next succeeding Fixed Interest Rate Payment Date.

Floating Interest Rate Period means the period beginning on (and including) the First Call Date and ending on (but excluding) the next succeeding Floating Interest Rate Payment Date and each successive period beginning on (and including) a Floating Interest Rate Payment Date and ending on (but excluding) the next succeeding Floating Interest Rate Payment Date.

Interest Payment Dates:

A Fixed Interest Rate Payment Date or a Floating Interest Rate Payment Date.

Where:

Fixed Interest Rate Payment Date means 25 November in each year from and including 25 November 2015 to, and including, the First Call Date.

Floating Interest Rate Payment Date means 25 February, 25 May, 25 August and 25 November in each year from, and including, 25 February 2026 to, and including, the Redemption Date.

Interest Deferral:

On each Interest Payment Date, the Issuer shall pay interest on the Notes accrued to that date in respect of the Interest Period ending immediately prior to such Interest Payment Date, subject to the provisions below.

On any Mandatory Interest Deferral Date, the Issuer will be obliged to defer payment of all (but not some only) the interest accrued (and, if relevant, any Arrears of Interest and Additional Interest Amounts thereon) in respect of the Notes during the relevant Interest Period and any such failure to pay shall not constitute a default by the Issuer for any purpose.

Any interest in respect of the Notes which has not been paid on a Mandatory Interest Deferral Date will be deferred, shall constitute Arrears of Interest and shall be payable as outlined below.

All Arrears of Interest (together with the corresponding Additional Interest Amount) in respect of all Notes for the time being outstanding shall become due in full on whichever is the earliest of:

- (i) the next Interest Payment Date which is a Compulsory Interest Payment Date;
- (ii) the date of any redemption of the Notes in accordance with the provisions relating to redemption of the Notes; or
- (iii) the date upon which a judgment is made for the voluntary or judicial liquidation (liquidation amiable ou liquidation judiciaire) of the Issuer or the Issuer is liquidated for any other reason or the sale of the whole of the business (cession totale de l'entreprise) subsequent to the opening of a judicial recovery procedure of the Issuer.

Each amount of Arrears of Interest shall bear interest (the Additional Interest Amount), in accordance with Article 1154 of the French Code civil, as if it constituted the nominal amount of the Notes. The Additional Interest Amount shall be calculated by the Fiscal Agent at a rate which corresponds to the then applicable Rate of Interest with respect to the relevant Interest Period. The Additional Interest Amount accrued up to any Interest Payment Date shall be added, to the extent permitted by applicable law and for the purpose only of calculating the Additional Interest Amount accruing thereafter, to the amount of Arrears of Interest remaining unpaid on such Interest Payment Date as if such amount constituted Arrears of Interest.

The Issuer shall, on each Compulsory Interest Payment Date, pay interest in respect of the Notes accrued to that date in respect of the Interest Period ending on such Compulsory Interest Payment Date, together with all Arrears of Interest (including any Additional Interest Amount thereon) at such time.

If practicable under the circumstances, the Issuer will give not less than five (5) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' prior notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 10 (i) of any deferral of any interest under the Notes relating to a Mandatory Interest Deferral Date. Any delay or failure by the Issuer to give such notice shall not affect the deferral described above.

So long as the Notes are listed on the official list of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and admitted to trading on the Euro MTF Market and the rules of such stock exchange so require, notice of any such deferral shall also be given as soon as reasonably practicable to such stock exchange.

For the purpose hereof:

Compulsory Interest Payment Date means each Interest Payment Date which is not a Mandatory Interest Deferral Date.

Existing Regulations means, from the Issue Date to (but excluding) the date of implementation of Solvency 2 Regulations, the solvency margin, capital adequacy regulations or any other regulatory capital rules in effect in France, as amended from time to time up to (but excluding) the date of implementation of Solvency 2 Regulations in France, or, if the Issuer becomes domiciled in a jurisdiction other than France, such other jurisdiction, and/or any other relevant jurisdiction as applied and construed by the Relevant Supervisory Authority or an official application or interpretation of those regulations including a decision of a court or tribunal and applicable to the Issuer.

Mandatory Interest Deferral Date means each Interest Payment Date in respect of which the Fiscal Agent has received written notice from the Issuer confirming that a Regulatory Deficiency has occurred and such Regulatory Deficiency is continuing on such Interest Payment Date, or such interest payment (and, if relevant, any Arrears of Interest and Additional Interest Amounts thereon) would itself cause a Regulatory Deficiency. If (to the extent the Relevant Supervisory Authority can give such consent in accordance with the Existing Regulations or the Solvency 2 Regulations as applicable), the Relevant Supervisory Authority accepts that interest accrued (including Arrears of Interest and any Additional Interest Amounts thereon) in respect of the Notes during such Interest Period can be paid, the relevant Interest Payment Date will not be considered as a Mandatory Interest Deferral Date.

Prior Approval of the Relevant Supervisory Authority means the prior written approval of the Relevant Supervisory Authority, if such approval is required at the time under any Existing Regulations or any applicable Solvency 2 Regulations.

Regulatory Deficiency means:

- (i) before the implementation of the Solvency 2 Directive, the solvency margin of the Issuer or its Group falls below 100 percent of the minimum solvency margin or any applicable solvency margin or capital adequacy levels as applicable under Existing Regulations;
- (ii) following the implementation of the Solvency 2 Directive, the own funds regulatory capital (or whatever the terminology employed by Solvency 2 Regulations) of the Issuer or of the Group is not sufficient to cover the capital requirement (or whatever the terminology employed by Solvency 2 Regulations) of the Issuer or its Group and either a deferral of interest is required or redemption or repayment of principal is prohibited under Solvency 2 Regulations. For the avoidance of doubt, a Regulatory Deficiency would be deemed to have occurred when the Issuer and/or the Group fails to meet the Solvency Capital Requirement or Minimum Capital Requirement;
- (iii) the Relevant Supervisory Authority has notified the Issuer that it has determined, in view of the financial condition of the Issuer or its Group, that in accordance with applicable regulations at such time, the Issuer must take specified action in relation to payments under the Notes; or
- (iv) the Issuer admits it is or is declared unable to meet its liabilities as they fall due with its immediately disposable assets (cessation des paiements).

Relevant Supervisory Authority means any relevant regulator having jurisdiction over the Issuer, in the event that the Issuer is required to comply with certain applicable solvency margins or capital adequacy regulations or any other regulatory capital rules. The current Relevant Supervisory Authority is the Autorité de contrôle prudentiel et de résolution (ACPR).

Solvency Capital Requirement has the meaning ascribed to it in the Solvency 2 Directive.

Solvency 2 Directive means Directive 2009/138/EC of the European Union of November 25, 2009 on the taking-up and pursuit of the business of insurance and reinsurance (Solvency 2) and which must be transposed by member states of the European Economic Area pursuant to Article 309 of Directive 2009/138/EC (as amended or, as the case may be, supplemented); own-fund items are classified into three tiers under Solvency 2 Directive.

Solvency 2 Regulations means, as from (and including) the date of implementation of the Solvency 2 Directive in France, the solvency margin, capital adequacy regulations or any other regulatory capital rules which are applicable in France (or if the Issuer becomes domiciled in a jurisdiction other than France, such other jurisdiction), including the Solvency 2 Directive (and any laws or regulations implementing the Solvency 2 Directive) and the Transition Regime, as applied and construed by the Relevant Supervisory Authority or an official application or interpretation of those regulations including a decision of a court or tribunal and applicable to the Issuer and its Group, which would lay down the requirements to be fulfilled by financial instruments for inclusion into their own funds regulatory capital (or whatever the terminology that may be retained).

Taxation:

All payments in respect of the Notes shall be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or on behalf of the French Republic or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax unless such withholding or deduction is required by law.

If French law should require any such deduction or withholding, the Issuer shall, to the extent permitted by law, pay such additional amounts (Additional Amounts) as may be necessary so that each Noteholder, after such deduction or withholding, will receive the full amount then due and payable on each Note in the absence of such deduction or withholding, except that no such additional amounts shall be payable with respect to any Note in some circumstances.

The Issuer will have the right to redeem all but not some only of the Notes, subject to certain conditions, on the Interest Payment Date falling on or about the First Call Date or upon any Interest Payment Date thereafter. Such redemption will be made at the Base Call Price.

Redemption from the First Call Date:

Redemption for tax reasons:

If by reason of any change in, or amendments to, the laws or regulations (i) of the French Republic, or any political subdivision therein or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax, or any change in the official application or interpretation of such laws or regulations, in each case becoming effective on or after the Issue Date, the tax regime of any payments under the Notes is modified and such modification results in the part of the interest payable by the Issuer in respect of the Notes that is tax-deductible being reduced, the Issuer may, at its option, at any time, subject to having given not more than forty five (45) nor less than thirty (30) days' prior notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 10 (which notice shall be irrevocable), elect to redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes then outstanding at their Base Call Price, provided that the effective date of any redemption of which an election hereunder may be given by the Issuer shall be no earlier than the latest practicable date preceding the effective date on which the tax regime of interest payments under the Notes is modified.

- (ii) If by reason of any change in, or amendments to, the laws or regulations of the French Republic, or any political subdivision therein or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax, or any change in the official application or interpretation of such laws or regulations, in each case becoming effective on or after the Issue Date, the Issuer would on the occasion of the next payment due under the Notes, not be able to make such payment without having to pay Additional Amounts (as defined above), the Issuer may, at any time, subject to having given not more than forty five (45) nor less than thirty (30) days' prior notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 10 (which notice shall be irrevocable), redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes then outstanding at their Base Call Price, provided that the effective date of redemption of which an election hereunder may be given shall be no earlier than the latest practicable date on which the Issuer could make payment of principal and interest without having to pay Additional Amounts (as defined above) or, if such date has passed, as soon as practicable thereafter.
- (iii) If the Issuer would on the next payment due under the Notes be prevented by French law or regulation from making payment to the Noteholders of the full amount then due and payable (including any Additional Amounts (as defined above) which would be payable but for the operation of such French law), then the Issuer shall forthwith give notice of such fact to the Fiscal Agent and the Issuer shall, upon giving not less than seven (7) days' prior notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 10 (which notice shall be irrevocable), redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes then outstanding at their Base Call Price on the effective date of any such law or regulation.

In each case subject to 6.9 (Conditions to Redemption) (each of the causes of redemption mentioned in paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) above being referred to as a Tax Event).

Redemption for Regulatory Reasons

If at any time the Issuer determines that a Capital Disqualification Event has occurred with respect to the Notes on or after the Issue Date, the Notes may be redeemed in whole but not in part at the option of the Issuer, at any time, subject to Condition 6.9 (Conditions to Redemption), at the Base Call Price, provided that the due date for redemption shall be no earlier than the date of the Capital Disqualification Event.

Where:

Capital Disqualification Event means that, at any time whilst any of the Notes are outstanding, (i) the Issuer is subject to regulatory supervision by the Relevant Supervisory Authority, and (ii) the Issuer is no longer permitted to treat the proceeds of the Notes, in whole or in part, as eligible (x) for the purpose of the determination of its solvency margin or capital adequacy levels under the Existing Regulations or, as the case may be, Solvency 2 Regulations or (y) as at least tier two own funds regulatory capital (or whatever the terminology employed by Existing Regulations or, as the case may be, Solvency 2 Regulations) for the purposes of the determination of its regulatory capital under the Existing Regulations or, as the case may be, Solvency 2 Regulations, except, in each case, as a result of the application of the limits on inclusion (on a solo or group-level basis) of such securities in, respectively, its solvency margin or own funds regulatory capital, as the case may be.

Transition Regime means the transitional provisions (grandfathering) set by Solvency 2 Regulations for the purpose of classifying existing instruments into the new own funds framework at the time of application of Solvency 2 Regulations.

Redemption for Accounting Reasons

If at any time the Issuer determines that an Accounting Event has occurred with respect to the Notes on or after the Issue Date, the Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole but not in part, at any time, subject to Condition 6.9 (Conditions to Redemption), at the Base Call Price, provided that the due date for redemption shall be no earlier than the date of the Accounting Event.

Where:

An Accounting Event will be deemed to occur upon the delivery to the Issuer (with a copy to the Fiscal Agent) of the written opinion of a recognised accountancy firm of international standing stating that as a result of a change in, or amendment to, the IFRS in force after the date on which the Issuer publishes for the first time semi-annual or annual consolidated financial statements under this accounting standard, the Notes must no longer be recorded as "liabilities" in the consolidated financial statements of the Issuer under IFRS and this cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking such reasonable measures it (acting in good faith) deems appropriate.

IFRS means the International Financial Reporting Standards (or any successor thereto) as applicable at the relevant dates and for the relevant periods.

Clean-up Redemption

The Issuer may elect to redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes at any time after the Issue Date at their Base Call Price if 80% (eighty percent) or more in Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes issued on the Issue Date has been purchased and cancelled at the time of such election.

Variation and substitution of the Notes

If a Capital Disqualification Event, an Accounting Event or a Tax Event occurs, the Issuer may, at any time, without any requirement for the consent or approval of the Noteholders, vary the Conditions or substitute all (and not some only) of the Notes for other Notes, so that the varied Notes or the substituted Notes, as the case may be, become Qualifying Equivalent Securities.

The aggregate principal amount of the Qualifying Equivalent Securities to be received by Noteholders in substitution will be equal to the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes.

Any variation or substitution of the Notes is subject to its prior notification by the Issuer to the Noteholders by no more than sixty (60) nor less than thirty (30) calendar days' prior notice (which notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the date fixed for such variation or substitution) and to:

(i) the Issuer giving at least six (6) months' prior written notice to, and receiving no objection from, the Relevant Supervisory Authority (or such shorter period of notice as the Relevant Supervisory Authority may accept and so long as such notice is required to be given);

- (ii) the Issuer being in compliance with the Existing Regulations or, as the case may be, Solvency 2 Regulations on the date of such variation or substitution, and such variation or substitution not resulting directly or indirectly in a breach of the then Existing Regulations or, as the case may be, Solvency 2 Regulations;
- (iii) the Issuer complying with the rules of any stock exchange (or any other relevant authority) on which the Issuer has had its Notes listed or admitted to trading, and (for so long as the rules of such exchange or relevant authority require) the publication of any appropriate supplement, listing particulars or offering circular in connection therewith;
- (iv) the issue, of legal opinions addressed to the Fiscal Agent from one or more international law firms of good reputation confirming that (x) the Issuer has capacity to assume all rights and obligations under the new exchanged Notes or varied Notes and has obtained all necessary corporate or governmental authorization to assume all such rights and obligations, (y) in case of issuance of new exchanged notes, the Issuer no longer has or will no longer have, upon the exchange being effective, any liability under the old Notes that have been exchanged and (z) the legality, validity and enforceability of the new exchanged Notes or varied Notes; and
- (v) the full payment on the relevant Interest Payment Date (if any) of all interest amount due on such date.

Where:

Qualifying Equivalent Securities means securities which have terms not being prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders as determined by the senior management of the Issuer in consultation with two independent investment banks of international standing, and provided that a certification to such effect shall have been delivered to the Fiscal Agent (including as to the consultation with the independent investment bank and in respect of the matters specified in (i) to (vii) below) for the benefit of the Noteholders prior to the issue or variation of the relevant securities (upon which the Fiscal Agent shall be entitled to rely without liability to any person) and which:

- (i) satisfy the criteria for the eligibility for inclusion of the proceeds of the Notes, under the Existing Regulations, or as the case may be, Solvency 2 Regulations in the solvency margin or tier two (at least, or any stronger tier) own funds regulatory capital, as the case may be;
- shall bear at least the same interest rate from time to time to that applying to the Notes and preserve the Interest Payment Dates;
- (iii) contain new terms providing for mandatory deferral of payments of interest and/or principal only if such terms are not materially less favorable to an investor than the mandatory deferral provisions contained in Condition 4 or, as the case may be, Condition 6;

- (iv) shall rank at least pari passu with the Notes;
- (v) preserve the obligations (including the obligations arising from the exercise of any right) of the Issuer as to redemption of the Notes, including (without limitation) as to timing of, and amounts payable upon such redemption;
- (vi) do not contain terms providing for loss absorption through principal write-down or conversion to ordinary shares; and
- (vii) preserve any rights under the Conditions to any accrued interest and Arrears of Interest (including any Additional Interest Amounts thereon), and any existing rights to other amounts payable under the Notes which has accrued to Noteholders and not been paid.

Conditions to Redemption:

The Notes shall not be redeemed except as described in "Terms and Conditions of the Notes – Redemption and Purchase" and, in any such case, subject to the Prior Approval of the Relevant Supervisory Authority.

- (a) Any redemption of the Notes in accordance with Condition 6 shall be subject to:
  - (i) the Prior Approval of the Relevant Supervisory Authority; and
  - (ii) if applicable, the No Regulatory Deficiency Conditions having been satisfied.
- (b) The No Regulatory Deficiency Conditions shall:
  - (i) apply only to, and form part of, the Conditions to the extent that, and so long as, the absence of such provisions from the Conditions would, after the implementation of the Solvency 2 Directive, result in a Capital Disqualification Event; and
  - (ii) mean that any redemption of the Notes occurring after such implementation shall be subject to the conditions (amongst others as described herein) that (1) no Regulatory Deficiency has occurred and is continuing on the date due for redemption and (2) such redemption would not itself cause a Regulatory Deficiency, unless in each case the Relevant Supervisory Authority has accepted to waive the No Regulatory Deficiency Conditions, it being provided that should a Regulatory Deficiency occur after a notice for redemption has been made to the Noteholders, such redemption notice would become automatically void and notice thereof would be made promptly by the Issuer to the Paying Agent and the Noteholders. Purchase: The Issuer or any subsidiary of the Issuer may at any time purchase Notes at any price in the open market or otherwise, subject to the Prior Approval of the Relevant Supervisory Authority. All Notes so purchased by the Issuer may (i) be held and resold in accordance with Articles L.213-1 A and D.213-1 A of the French Code monétaire et financier for the purpose of enhancing the liquidity of the Notes or (ii) be cancelled in accordance with Article L.228-74 of the French

The Notes will cease to bear interest from and including the due date for redemption unless payment of the principal in respect of the Notes is improperly withheld or refused on such date or unless default is otherwise made in respect of the payment. In such event, the Notes will continue to bear interest at the relevant Rate of Interest as specified in this Condition 4 (before judgment as well as after judgment) on their remaining unpaid amount until the day on which all sums due in respect of the Notes up to that day are received by or on behalf of the relevant Noteholders.

4.2 Fixed Interest Rate

The amount of interest (the Fixed Rate Interest Amount) payable on each Note and on each Fixed Interest Rate Payment Date will be the product of the Principal Amount of such Note and the Fixed Interest Rate, multiplied by the Actual/Actual (ICMA) day count fraction and rounding the resulting figure, if necessary, to the nearest cent (half a cent being rounded upwards).

The Fiscal Agent shall, as soon as practicable after 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time) on each Interest Determination Date, determine the Floating Interest Rate and amount of interest (each a Floating Rate Interest Amount) payable (if any) on the relevant Floating Interest Rate Payment Date on each Note for the relevant Floating Interest Rate Period.

The Floating Rate Interest Amounts shall be determined by applying the Floating Interest Rate to the Principal Amount of a Note, multiplying the resulting amount by the actual number of days in the relevant Floating Interest Rate Period divided by three hundred and sixty (360) and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest cent (half a cent being rounded upwards).

(c) Publication of the Floating Interest Rate and Floating Rate Interest Amount with respect to a Floating Interest Rate Period

As used herein, the Relevant Date in relation to any Note means the date on which such payment first becomes due, except that, if the full amount of the moneys payable has not been duly received by the Fiscal Agent on or prior to such due date, it means the date on which, the full amount of such moneys having been so received, notice to that effect is duly given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 10.

- (ii) any proposal relating to the issue of securities carrying a right of preference compared to the rights of the Noteholders;

it being specified, however, that a general assembly may not increase amounts payable by the Noteholders, nor establish any unequal treatment between the Noteholders, nor decide to convert the Notes into shares and that no amendment to the status of the Notes may enter into force until the consent of the Relevant Supervisory Authority has been obtained in relation to such amendment. # 4. History of the BNP Paribas Cardif Group

The company Compagnie d'Assurance et d'Investissement de France (CARDIF) was created in July 1973 by the Compagnie Bancaire and was approved as an insurance company by the French regulator. In 1998, the Compagnie Bancaire merged with the credit institution Paribas.

In 1986, CARDIF launched and commercialised various long term capital income products via its network of banking agencies under the brand Natio Vie. In parallel, the cooperation between BNP (Banque Nationale de Paris) and UAP (Union des Assurances de Paris) led to the creation in 1991 of a common subsidiary, Natio Assurance that commercialised property and casualty insurance contracts to clients of the bank.

In 1992, CARDIF had offices in 30 cities in France.

The expansion in the international market started in 1989 with the opening of CARDIF offices in Italy, Belgium, and Spain. In 1997, the business was launched in Asia (Taiwan) and in Latin America (Chile).

In 2001, a natural consequence of the merger of BNP and Paribas was the regrouping of the teams of CARDIF, Natio Assurance and Natio Vie at the head office of CARDIF in Rueil-Malmaison.

In 2004, the insurance companies of the BNP Paribas Group were brought together under a common name "BNP Paribas Assurance".

In 2010, BNP Paribas Assurance became BNP Paribas Cardif and BNP Paribas S.A integrated the shares it held in AG Insurance.

In 2011, BNP Paribas Cardif moved to its new administrative office, at 8, rue du port, 92000 Nanterre.

In 2013, to pursue its development trend on the international market, the Issuer signed a joint venture contract with Bank of Beijing.

5.2 Strategy

The Issuer derived close to 50% of its GWP from business outside France in 2013 with a diversified geographic business balance. The Issuer aims to continue to take advantage of its international profile, continuing to drive the same sustained organic growth it had in all the countries in which the Issuer is implanted.

In 2014 and beyond, the Issuer intends to focus on three main priorities: develop its product catalogue, diversify its geographic footprint and distribution channels - with a greater emphasis on digital development - and propose products and services adapted to the new expectations of its clients.

In addition to its loan insurance business, the Issuer has expanded its protection offering, to encompass health insurance, budget, income and payment means protection, extended warranty, property and casualty insurance.

The Issuer's strategic plan is based on four main principles:

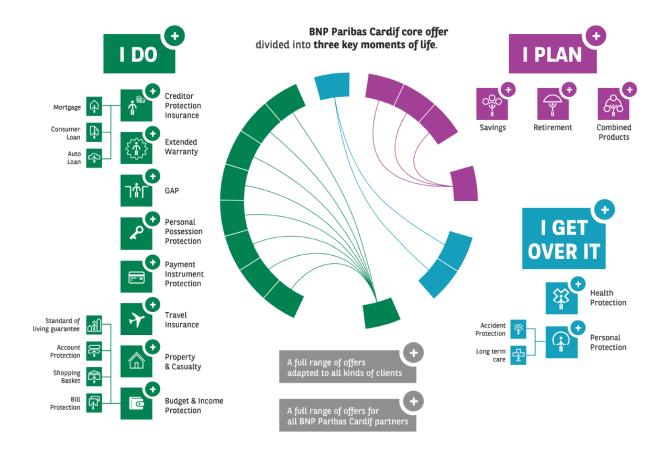

- (i) secure saving's portfolio through long term partnerships with bank network and diversification through unit linked worldwide, and "euros diversifiés" contracts in France;
- (ii) continue the diversification towards protection's products, in particular damage and other protection insurance worldwide;
- (iii) digitize the company and its offer; and
- (iv) adapt the offer to clients through value for client measurement programme and product innovation.

5.3 Business Lines

5.5 Risk management and Investment policies

5.5.1 BNP Paribas Cardif Group risk management system

BNP Paribas Cardif Group manages its risks in accordance with its intended risk profile and its risk preferences:

• insurance risks profile is defined by two indicators: (i) maximum deviation between pre-tax income and budget at the 90% quantile, and (ii) the target solvency ratio in the current regulatory environment, that is Directive 73/239/EEC of 24 July 1973 on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the taking-up and pursuit of the business of direct insurance other than life assurance (the Solvency 1 Directive), as implemented under French law in the French insurance code:

- as at 31 December 2013, the so-called Solvency 1 ratio (defined in the Solvency 1 Directive as implemented under French law) stands at 117.3% before unrealized gains on assets. If one includes the unrealized gains, the Solvency 1 ratio is above 140%. BNP Paribas Cardif Group's risk preferences can be summarized in the three following principles:
  - (a) control the general fund's contribution to growth in savings products in order to limit the proportion of market risk;
  - (b) support the growing use of protection products by the Issuer; and
  - (c) expansion in the property & casualty market to increase the relative proportion of underwriting risk and the diversification effect for the Issuer.

The main risk decision-taking or monitoring committees are:

- the Insurance Risk Management Committee which covers all risks and is responsible for defining the risk policy and for overseeing the key risks. It monitors progress in BNP Paribas Cardif Group's transition towards the future Solvency 2 Directive, alongside "Valor", the dedicated structure for this purpose set up in 2009;
- Various committees take decisions in relation to the risks of the Issuers:
  - (a) the underwriting committee for risks outside the limits granted to the local and regional entities:
  - (b) the new business committee for new underwriting risks and underwriting risks that are not new for BNP Paribas Cardif Group but new for a particular entity; and
  - (c) the new asset class committee for investments in new types of asset;
  - (d) the insurance asset liability management committee covers market risks and is responsible for defining the strategic asset allocation;
  - (e) the exposure monitoring committee oversees underwriting risks and the credit risk on receivables arising from insurance business;
  - (f) the asset credit risk committee monitors credit risk on issuers of financial instruments; and
  - (g) the operational risk committee monitors actual and potential incidents.

5.5.2 Financial risks

Financial risks arise mainly in the Savings business, where technical reserves represented over 95% of the insurance subsidiaries' liabilities in 2013. The main financial risks fall into four categories:

a) Interest rate risks.

In France, the Issuer has to book a provision for future adverse deviation (provision pour aléas financiers) when the total amount of technical interest plus the guaranteed return payable to policyholders through technical reserves is not covered by 80% of the return on the admissible assets. No provision for future adverse deviation was booked on 31 December for the years 2011, 2012 or 2013 as the returns guaranteed by the insurance subsidiaries were low and the guarantees were for short periods, resulting in only limited exposure.

b) Liquidity risks

Liquidity risk is managed centrally by the BNP Paribas Cardif Group's asset liability management unit, which coordinates its activities with the BNP Paribas ALM treasury department. Regular asset-liability matching reviews are performed to measure and manage the financial risks, based on medium and/or long-term income statement and balance sheet projections prepared according to various economic scenarios.

c) Counterparty risks

BNP Paribas Cardif Group tries to maintain a balanced spread of bond exposure between sovereign risk and corporate risk (each representing 50% of the portfolio of Cardif Assurance Vie). Euro-zone portfolios focus on issuers with an average rating better than A. Limits by issuer and rating type (investment grade, high-yield) are monitored regularly. Issuer credit quality is also reviewed frequently. The Issuer has limited exposure (less than 10%) to sovereign risks in the peripheral Euro-zone countries.

5.5.3 Insurance risks

Underwriting risks arise mainly in the Savings business due to surrender risks. There are three types of underwriting risks:

a) Savings – surrender risk

Savings contracts include a surrender clause allowing policyholders to request reimbursement of all or part of their accumulated savings. The Issuer is exposed to the risk of surrender volumes being higher than the forecasts used for asset liability management purposes, which may force the Issuer to sell assets at a loss. The surrender risk is limited however due to the following:

- policyholder behavior is monitored on an ongoing basis in order to regularly align the duration of the assets with that of the corresponding liabilities and reduce the risk of abrupt and large-scale asset sales;
- policyholders are paid dividends that raise the total return to a level in line with market benchmarks. The policyholders' surplus reserve is the mechanism in France that enables the surplus actually paid out to be pooled and spread between generations of policyholders; and
- the return on financial assets is protected through the use of hedging instruments.

b) Unit-linked contracts with a guaranteed minimum benefit

Unit linked liabilities are equal to the sum of the market values of the assets held in the unit-linked portfolios. The Issuer's liability is therefore covered by corresponding assets. The match between unit-linked liabilities and the related assets is controlled at monthly intervals. The capital guarantee is subject to certain limits.

c) Protection

These risks result mainly for the Issuer from the sale of creditor insurance and other personal risk insurance (individual death and disability, extended warranty, annuity policies). The actuarial oversight system set up by the Issuer to prevent and control actuarial risks is based on guidelines. Risk exposures are monitored at quarterly intervals by BNP Paribas Cardif Group's executive committee, based on an analysis of loss ratios.

Reinsurance is a complementary element of the underwriting risk management system.

Underwriting risks are covered by various technical reserves, including mathematical reserves in life insurance, the unearned premiums reserves generally calculated on an accruals basis, the outstanding claims reserves, determined by reference to reported claims, and the IBNR (claims incurred but not reported) reserves, determined on the basis of either observed settlements or the expected number of claims and the average cost per claim. The level of prudence adopted for the overall assessment of claims provisions corresponds to the 90% quantile.

5.6 Material Contracts

The BNP Paribas Cardif Group relies on the networks of banks affiliated with the BNP Paribas Group to distribute its products and has entered into agreements which govern these relations. In addition to the distribution of its products, the BNP Paribas Group has also entered into contractual outsourcing arrangements with members of the BNP Paribas Group for other important services required in connection with the day-to-day operation of the BNP Paribas Group's insurance businesses, including administrative management of life insurance policies, which is delegated to the distributors, asset management, which is delegated to specialist entities within the BNP Paribas Group.

In April 2004, entities of the BNP Paribas Group began outsourcing IT Infrastructure Management Services to the BNP Paribas Partners for Innovation (BP²I) joint venture set up with IBM France at the end of 2003. BP²I provides IT Infrastructure Management Services for various entities of the BNP Paribas Group in France including the Issuer. In mid-December 2011, BNP Paribas renewed its agreement with IBM France until end-2017. BP²I is 50% owned by BNP Paribas and IBM France.

As at 31 December 2013, BNP Paribas Cardif had a 43.2 million euros debt vis à vis GIE BNP Paribas Cardif.

5.7 Solvency

Under applicable French laws and regulations (articles R.334-17 and A.334-1 of the French insurance code), insurance companies must have a level of equity sufficient to cover a solvency margin based on their liabilities. In the saving insurance activity, the solvency margin is based on actuarial provisions on euro-denominated and unit of account contracts. In protection insurance activity, it is based on capital at risk (for the life business) and on revenues (for the non-life business).

As at 31 December 2012, the solvency margin of the Issuer was in excess of the consolidated solvency margin set at 5,040 million euros (361 million euros in excess). As at 31 December 2013, the consolidated solvency margin of the BNP Paribas Cardif Group calculated pursuant to article R.334-19 of the French insurance code amounted to 5,401 million euros. The global solvency margin ratio was equal to 147.2% including unrealised capital gains and losses net of insured profit sharing (1,614 million euros), as calculated under regulatory requirements.

Total assets included in the calculation of the solvency margin, after appropriation of earnings submitted to the shareholders general meeting, amounted to 6,337 million euros, which represents a margin of 117.3% (excluding unrealised capital gains and losses) pursuant to applicable regulatory requirements.

The following elements were, among others, taken into account for the calculation of the solvency margin:

- the consolidated shareholders' equity, including retained earnings, of 3,993 million euros;
- minority interests of 33 million euros;
- loans and subordinated bonds amounting to 2,586 million euros, and from technical provisions accepted under applicable French laws and regulations amounting to 638 million euros; and

• some items (intangible assets, goodwill and the portion of deferred acquisition costs not allowed as assets backing liabilities) totalling -914 million euros are deducted from the solvency margin.

BNP Paribas Cardif Group has also contracted loans in euros and other local currencies with BNP Paribas S.A for an amount equal to 1.76 billion euros as at the end of 2013, in order to have additional funding for its main subsidiaries worldwide as well as to hedge its investments against foreign exchange risk.

5.8 Ratings

BNP Paribas Cardif Group is rated by Standard & Poors.

8. Recent developments

8.1 General

Performance trend (unaudited figures for the six months period ended on 30 June 2014):

The Issuer's GWP (BNP Paribas Cardif Group statutory scope) amounted to 10.9 billion euros as at 30 June 2014, a 4% increase compared to June 2013. This development is largely due to the savings activity in Italy and to the constant growth of the protection activity in Asia (a 3% increase in Japan compared to 2013) and Latin America (a 13% increase in Brazil compared to 2013, a 5% increase in Chile compared to 2013). <sup>14</sup>

More generally the Insurance business of BNP Paribas Group, to which BNP Paribas Cardif Group belongs, has seen a 3.4% increase of its net profit before tax<sup>15</sup>.

8.2 Acquisition

Since the beginning of the year, continuing its diversifying strategy in Protection, BNP Paribas Cardif Group has announced agreements to acquire 3 new companies:

- In France, the Issuer announced on 23 July 2014 that it had entered into an agreement with the Europ Assistance Group for the acquisition of Icare SA, an insurance company specialized in marketing and managing insurance cover and services for the automotive market in France;
- In Italy, the Issuer announced on 6 August 2014 that it had entered into an agreement with UBI Banca to acquire the remaining 50% 1 share of UBI Assicurazioni, one of the significant non-life bancassurance players in the Italian market. On completion, the Issuer and Ageas will jointly own 100% of UBI Assicurazioni (with Ageas holding 50% + 1 share, and BNP Paribas Cardif holding 50% 1 share). This transaction is subject to regulatory approval and is expected to close in 2014; and
- In South Korea, the Issuer announced on 30 July 2014 that it had entered into an agreement to acquire an 85% stake in Ergo Daum Direct, an insurance company specialized in non life products (with Axa retaining a 15% stake). This joint venture should be offering general insurance products to Korean consumers from September 2014 under the name BNP Paribas Cardif General Insurance.

TAXATION

The following is a general description of certain tax considerations relating to the Notes. It does not purport to be a complete analysis of all tax considerations relating to the Notes, whether in France or elsewhere. Prospective purchasers of Notes should consult their own tax advisers as to which countries' tax laws could be relevant to acquiring, holding and disposing of Notes and receiving payments of interest, principal and/or other amounts under the Notes and the consequences of such actions under the tax laws of those countries. This summary is based upon the law as in effect on the date of this Prospectus and is subject to any change in law that may take effect after such date.

1. EU SAVINGS DIRECTIVE

Under the Council Directive 2003/48/EC on taxation of savings income in the form of interest payments (the Savings Directive), Member States, subject to a number of conditions being met, are required to provide to the tax authorities of other Member States details of payments of interest and other similar income made or secured by a paying agent located within their jurisdiction to, or for the benefit of, an individual resident in that other Member State and to certain limited types of entities established in that other Member State.

On 24 March 2014, the Council of the European Union adopted a Council Directive amending and broadening the scope of the requirements described above (the Amending Savings Directive). Member States are required to apply these new requirements from 1 January 2017. The changes will expand the range of payments covered by the Savings Directive, in particular to include additional types of income payable on securities. The Amending Savings Directive will also expand the circumstances in which payments that indirectly benefit an individual resident in a Member State must be reported. This approach will apply to payments made to, or secured for, persons, entities or legal arrangements (including trusts) where certain conditions are satisfied, and may in some cases apply where the person, entity or arrangement is established or effectively managed outside of the European Union.

For a transitional period, Luxembourg and Austria are instead required (unless during that period they elect otherwise) to operate a withholding system in relation to such payments. The rate of such withholding tax is 35 per cent. The changes referred to above will broaden the types of payments subject to withholding in those Member States which still operate a withholding system when they are implemented. Luxembourg has announced its intention to elect out of the withholding system with effect from 1 January 2015, in favour of automatic exchange of information under the Savings Directive

The end of such transitional period being dependent upon the conclusion of certain other agreements relating to information exchange with certain other countries. A number of non-EU countries and territories including Switzerland have adopted similar measures (a withholding system in the case of Switzerland).

2. FRANCE

2.1 Withholding Tax

The following is a basic summary of certain withholding tax considerations that may be relevant to Noteholders who do not concurrently hold shares of the Issuer or are affiliated with the Issuer within the meaning of article 39,12 of the French Code général des impôts. Persons who are in doubt as to their tax position should consult a professional tax adviser.

Withholding Tax

Payments of interest and other revenues made by the Issuer with respect to the Notes are not subject to the withholding tax provided under Article 125 A III of the Code général des impôts unless such payments are made in a non-cooperative State or territory (Etat ou territoire non coopératif) within the meaning of Article 238-0 A of the French Code général des impôts (a Non Cooperative State). If such payments under the Notes are made in a Non-Cooperative State, a 75 per cent. withholding tax will be applicable (subject to exceptions, certain of which are set forth below, and to the more favourable provisions of an applicable double tax treaty).

Furthermore, in application of Article 238 A of the French Code général des impôts, interest and other assimilated revenues on such Notes will not be deductible from the Issuer's taxable income if they are paid or accrued to persons established or domiciled in a Non-Cooperative State or paid to a bank account opened in a financial institution located in a Non-Cooperative State (the Deductibility Exclusion). Under certain conditions, any such non-deductible interest and other revenues may be recharacterised as constructive dividends pursuant to Articles 109 et seq. of the French Code général des impôts, in which case such non deductible interest and other revenues may be subject to the withholding tax set out under Article 119 bis 2 of the French Code général des impôts, at a rate of 30 per cent. or 75 per cent. (subject to more favourable provisions of any applicable double tax treaty).

(i) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the law provides that neither the 75 per cent. withholding tax set out under Article 125 A III of the French Code général des impôts, nor the Deductibility Exclusion will apply in respect of the Notes if the Issuer can prove that (i) the principal purpose and effect of the issue of the Notes was not that of allowing the payments of interest or other revenues to be made in a Non Cooperative State, and (ii) in respect of the Deductibility Exclusion, the interest or other revenues on the relevant Notes relate to genuine transactions and are not in an abnormal or exaggerated amount (the Exception). Pursuant to the Bulletin Officiel des Finances Publiques-Impôts BOI-INT-DG-20-50-20140211 no. 550 and 990, BOI-RPPM-RCM-30-10-20-40-20140211 no. 70 and 80, BOI-IR-DOMIC-10-20-20-60-20140211 no. 10 and BOI-ANNX-000364-20120912 no. 20, the Notes will benefit from the Exception without the Issuer having to provide any proof of the purpose and effect of the issue of the Notes, if the Notes are inter alia, admitted, at the time of their issue, to the clearing operations of a central depositary or of a securities clearing and delivery and payments systems operator within the meaning of Article L.561-2 of the French Code monétaire et financier, or of one or more similar foreign depositaries or operators provided that such depositary or operator is not located in a Non Cooperative State.

Consequently, payments of interest and other revenues made by the Issuer under the Notes will not be subject to the 75 per cent. withholding tax set out under Article 125 A III of the French Code général des impôts and the Deductibility Exclusion will not apply to such payments.

Payment to individuals fiscally domiciled in France

Pursuant to Article 125 A I of the French Code général des impôts and subject to certain limited exceptions, interest and other similar revenues received by individuals who are fiscally domiciled (domiciliés fiscalement) in France are subject to a 24 per cent. withholding tax, which is deductible from their personal income tax liability in respect of the year in which the payment has been made. Social contributions (CSG, CRDS and other related contributions) are also levied by way of withholding tax at an aggregate rate of 15.5 per cent. on interest and other similar revenues paid to individuals who are fiscally domiciled (domiciliés fiscalement) in France.

2.2 EU Savings Directive

The Savings Directive has been implemented into French law under Article 242 ter of the French Code général des impôts and Article 49 I ter to 49 I sexies of the Schedule III to the French Code general des impôts. Article 242 ter of the French Code general des impôts imposes on paying agents based in France an obligation to report to the French tax authorities certain information with respect to interest payments made to beneficial owners domiciled in another Member State, including, among other things, the identity and address of the beneficial owner and a detailed list of the different categories of interest paid to that beneficial owner.

3. LUXEMBOURG TAXATION

The following is a general description of certain Luxembourg tax considerations relating to the Notes. It specifically contains information on taxes on the income from the Notes withheld at source and provides an indication as to whether the Issuer assumes responsibility for the withholding of taxes at the source. It does not purport to be a complete analysis of all tax considerations relating to the Notes, whether in Luxembourg or elsewhere. Prospective purchasers of the Notes should consult their own tax advisers as to which countries' tax laws could be relevant to acquiring, holding and disposing of the Notes payments of interest, principal and/or other amounts under the Notes and the consequences of such actions under the tax laws of Luxembourg. This summary is based upon the law as in effect on the date of this Prospectus. The information contained within this section is limited to withholding taxation issues, and prospective investors should not apply any information set out below to other areas, including (but not limited to) the legality of transactions involving the Notes. Please note that it has been announced by Luxembourg that as of 1 January 2015 it would switch from the withholding system to the exchange of information system.

Please be aware that the residence concept used under the respective headings below applies for Luxembourg income tax assessment purposes only. Any reference in the present section to a withholding tax or a tax of a similar nature, or to any other concepts, refers to Luxembourg tax law and/or concepts only.

3.1 Non Luxembourg tax resident Noteholders

Under Luxembourg general tax laws currently in force and subject to the laws of 21 June 2005, as amended (the Savings Laws), there is no withholding tax on payments of principal, premium or interest made to non-resident Noteholders, nor on accrued but unpaid interest in respect of the Notes, nor is any Luxembourg withholding tax payable upon redemption or repurchase of the Notes held by non-resident Noteholders.

Under the Saving Laws implementing the Council Directive 2003/48/EC of 3 June 2003 on taxation of savings income in the form of interest payments and ratifying the treaties entered into by Luxembourg and certain dependent and associated territories of EU Member States (the Territories), payments of interest or similar income made or ascribed by a paying agent established in Luxembourg to or for the immediate benefit of an individual beneficial owner or a residual entity which is resident of, or established in, an EU Member State (other than Luxembourg) or one of the Territories will be subject to a withholding tax unless the relevant recipient has adequately instructed the relevant paying agent to provide details of the relevant payments of interest or similar income to the fiscal authorities of his/her/its country of residence or establishment, or, in the case of an individual beneficial owner, has provided a tax certificate issued by the fiscal authorities of his/her country of residence in the required format to the relevant paying agent. Where withholding tax is applied, it is currently levied at a rate of 35 per cent. Responsibility for the withholding of the tax will be assumed by the Luxembourg paying agent.

3.2 Luxembourg resident Noteholders

Under Luxembourg general tax laws currently in force and subject to the law of 23 December 2005, as amended (the Relibi Law), there is no withholding tax on payments of principal, premium or interest made to Luxembourg resident Noteholders, nor on accrued but unpaid interest in respect of Notes, nor is any Luxembourg withholding tax payable upon redemption or repurchase of Notes held by Luxembourg resident Noteholders.

Under Relibi Law, payments of interest or similar income made or ascribed by a paying agent established in Luxembourg to or for the benefit of an individual beneficial owner who is resident of Luxembourg or certain foreign residual entities established in an EU Member State or one of the Territories and securing such payments for the benefit of such individual beneficial owner will be subject to a withholding tax of 10 per cent. Such withholding tax will be in full discharge of income tax if the beneficial owner is an individual acting in the course of the management of his/her private wealth. Responsibility for the withholding of the tax will be assumed by the Luxembourg paying agent. Payments of interest under the Notes coming within the scope of the Relibi Law would be subject to 10 per cent withholding tax.

When used in this section, "interest", residual entity", and "paying agent" have the meaning given thereto in the Saving Laws.

4. U.S. FOREIGN ACCOUNT TAX COMPLIANCE ACT

Sections 1471 through 1474 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (FATCA) impose a new reporting regime and potentially a 30% withholding tax with respect to certain payments to (a) any non-U.S. financial institution (a "foreign financial institution", or FFI (as defined by FATCA)) that does not become a Participating FFI by entering into an agreement with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to provide the IRS with certain information in respect of its account holders and investors or is not otherwise exempt from or in deemed compliance with FATCA and (b) any investor (unless otherwise exempt from FATCA) that does not provide information sufficient to determine whether the investor is a U.S. person or should otherwise be treated as holding a "United States account" of the Participating FFI (a Recalcitrant Holder). The Issuer is classified as an FFI. This withholding would potentially apply to payments in respect of any Notes that are issued on or after the "grandfathering date", which is the later of (a) 1 January 2014 and (b) the date that is six months after the date on which final U.S. Treasury regulations defining the term foreign passthru payment are filed with the Federal Register, or which are materially modified on or after the grandfathering date.

The new withholding regime will be phased in beginning 1 January 2014 for payments from sources within the United States and will apply to "foreign passthru payments" (a term not yet defined) no earlier than 1 January 2017.

The United States and a number of other jurisdictions have announced their intention to negotiate intergovernmental agreements to facilitate the implementation of FATCA (each, an IGA). Pursuant to FATCA and the "Model 1" and "Model 2" IGAs released by the United States, an FFI in an IGA signatory country could be treated as a Reporting FI not subject to withholding under FATCA on any payments it receives. Further, an FFI in a Model 1 IGA jurisdiction would generally not be required to withhold under FATCA or an IGA (or any law implementing an IGA) (any such withholding being FATCA Withholding) from payments it makes. Under each Model IGA, a Reporting FI would still be required to report certain information in respect of its account holders and investors to its home government or to the IRS. The United States and France have entered into an IGA based largely on the Model 1 IGA (a US-France IGA).

The Issuer expects to be treated as a Reporting FI pursuant to the US-France IGA and does not anticipate being obliged to deduct any FATCA Withholding on payments it makes. There can be no assurance, however, that the Issuer will be treated as a Reporting FI, or that it would in the future not be required to deduct FATCA Withholding from payments it makes. Accordingly, the Issuer and financial institutions through which payments on the Notes are made may be required to withhold FATCA Withholding if (a) any FFI through or to which payment on such Notes is made is not a Participating FFI, a Reporting FI, or otherwise exempt from or in deemed compliance with FATCA or (b) an investor is a Recalcitrant Holder.

While the Notes are held within the ICSDs, it is expected that FATCA will not affect the amount of any payments made under, or in respect of, the Notes by the Issuer or any paying agent, given that each of the entities in the payment chain between the Issuer and the participants in the ICSDs is a major financial institution whose business is dependent on compliance with FATCA and that any alternative approach introduced under an IGA will be unlikely to affect the Notes. If an amount in respect of FATCA Withholding were to be deducted or withheld from interest, principal or other payments made in respect of the Notes, neither the Issuer nor any paying agent nor any other person would, pursuant to the conditions of the Notes, be required to pay additional amounts as a result of the deduction or withholding. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected.

FATCA is particularly complex and its application is uncertain at this time. The above description is based in part on regulations, official guidance and the US-France IGA, all of which are subject to change or may be implemented in a materially different form. Prospective investors should consult their tax advisers on how these rules may apply to the Issuer and to payments that they may receive in connection with the Notes.

The Notes are being offered and sold only outside the United States to non-U.S. persons in compliance with Regulation S and U.S. tax law.

In addition, until forty (40) calendar days after the commencement of the offering of the Notes, an offer or sale of Notes within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act.
